

Planning for our CEDAR strategic plan

Kristina Lynch, Dartmouth

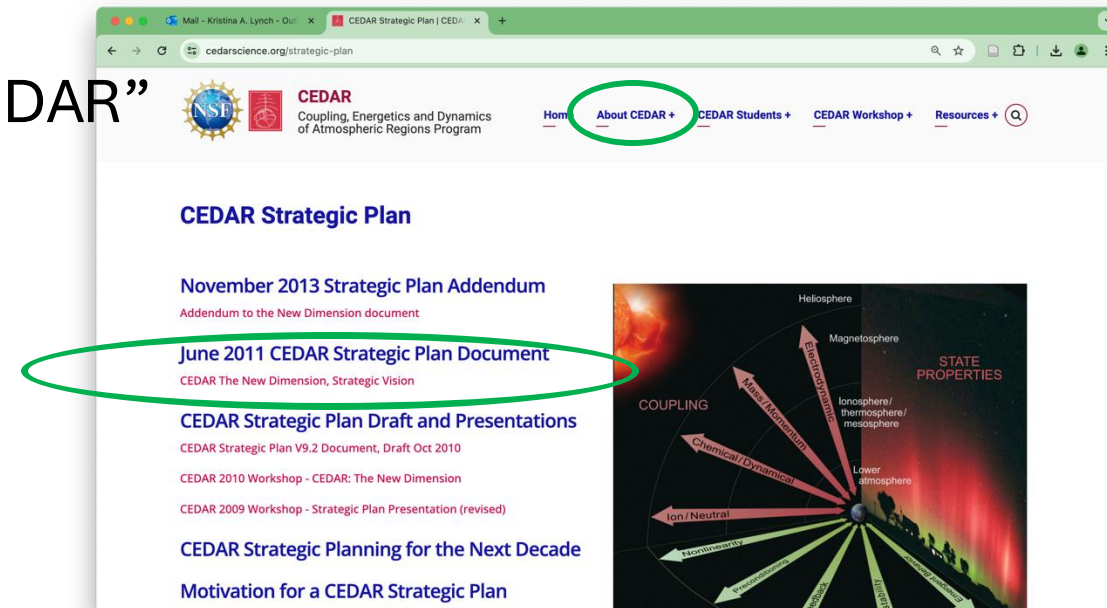

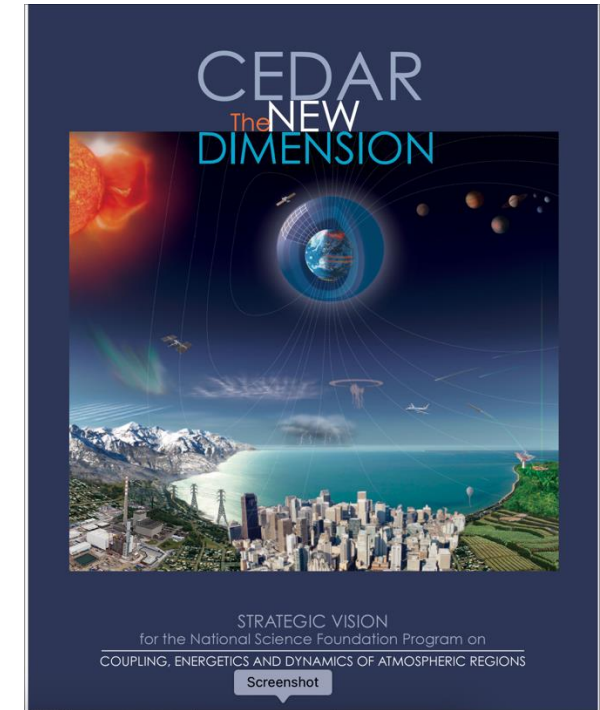

Katelynn Greer, LASP, Colorado

14 June 2024

What do we want CEDAR to be?

- 11 years since the (brief) 2013 Strategic Plan Addendum
- 13 years since the “CEDAR New Dimension” document
- This year, new Decadal Survey release
- Time to reconsider, review, update, refocus

- See the existing CEDAR document
 - On the CEDAR page, pull-down “about CEDAR”
 - cedarscience.org/strategic-plan

Thoughts from Prof Jeff Thayer, UCBoulder

- Lead author, 2011 report; CSSC chair 2007-2010

Thoughts from Prof Jeff Thayer, UCBoulder

- Lead author, 2011 report; CSSC chair 2007-2010
- Questions:
 - Why did the community see the need for this vision document at the time?

Thoughts from Prof Jeff Thayer, UCBoulder

- Lead author, 2011 report; CSSC chair 2007-2010
- Questions:
 - Why did the community see the need for this vision document at the time?
 - Do you see that – or another – need now?

Thoughts from Prof Jeff Thayer, UCBoulder

- Lead author, 2011 report; CSSC chair 2007-2010
- Questions:
 - Why did the community see the need for this vision document at the time?
 - Do you see that – or another – need now?
 - What path do you suggest for our CEDAR community now?

Proposed outlook

- Await Decadal later this summer
- Review the existing New Dimensions document
- Collect community input:
 - Does the Decadal capture CEDAR community plans?
 - Does the 2011 document still resonate? Does it need updating, changing, refocusing?
 - Review, define, focus the purpose and use of CEDAR
- Plan a session this time next year to pull together this input, formalize a response and plan
- Look for CEDAR emails requesting feedback and thoughts, fall 24-spring 25